

Welcome to the Wangaratta Veterinary Clinic family!

Below is a list of our large animal services:

CATTLE

General (ambulatory) services include:

- Examination of the sick or injured animal
- Lameness problems
- Down cows
- Medical problems
- Surgical procedures such as eye ablation, third eyelid cancer removals, LDA/RDA, claw amputations, castrations etc.
- Calf disbudding

Reproductive services include:

- Ultrasound or manual pregnancy testing. Ageing on the ultrasound is possible between 6-16 weeks of gestation.
- Assisting with calving difficulties, including performing c-sections and fetotomys.
- Assisting with calving issues (prolapses, milk fever etc.)
- Bull breeding soundness evaluations including semen testing
- Reproductive health investigations
- Pre-joining Metri-checks

Flock/Herd Health services including:

- Mortality investigations including post mortem
- Disease outbreak problems
- Pestivirus ear notch testing
- Blood testing
- Supply of and advice on using pain relief for marking
- Parasite control programs, including performing faecal egg counts

SMALL RUMINANTS (SHEEP & GOAT)

General (ambulatory) services include:

- Examination of the sick or injured sheep or goat
- Lameness problems
- Medical problems
- Surgical procedures
- Disbudding

Reproductive services include:

- Pre-breeding ram and ewe examinations
- Ram semen testing
- Brucellosis testing
- Vasectomies and castrations.
- Assisting with birthing difficulties
- Assisting with lambing/kidding issues (such as pregnancy toxemia, prolapses etc.)
- Reproductive health investigations

Flock/Herd Health services including:

- Mortality investigations including post mortem
- Disease outbreak problems
- Blood testing
- Supply of and advice on using pain relief for marking
- Management plans for the orphan lamb
- Parasite (worms, lice and fly) control programs, including performing faecal egg counts. Dr Emily Foss has completed the PARABOSS Sheep parasite advisor course.

03 5721 4000

www.wangarattavetclinic.com

